COLUMBIA OARSMEN DO WELL ON HARLEM

Win Three Victories, Sharing Honors of Big Day With New York . A. C.

UNITY BEATS BRUTE FORCE

Tom Rooney Strokes Powerful Picked Crew, but It Loses to Varsity Eight.

The Columbia University crews of Coach Jim Rice and the New York A C. oarsmen carried off the bulk of the honors in the first regatta of the New York Rowing Association, held over the speedway course on the Harlem River from 9:30 yesterday morning until sun down last night. It was a titanic task for the new organization, but with splendid conditions in the afternoon, after a cool and choppy river in the morning the officials ran off the monster regatts perfectly.

The Blue and White oarsmen carried off three first places, every entry but their freshmen eight winning. The New York A. C. also had three victories, one of them being over Columbia. Crews from New Jersey, Baltimore and Phila-delphia found the competition too hard for them and their combined forces managed to capture only two victories.

The Columbia varsity ran away with the feature race of the day. The picked crew with Tom Rooney, winner of the senior single sculls as stroke, had barsenior single sculls as stroke, had bar-rels of power, but none of the unity

The return of the schoolboys to the Harlem after four years of inactivity was a pleasing feature of the regatta. New Rochelle won in the fast—almost in-credible time—of 6 minutes 48 1-5 sec-The morning races were started from Fordham Bridge and finished a mile and a quarter away under the Washington Bridge, and in the afternoon session the order was reversed.

H. Heller won the junior single sculls the afternoon with greater ease than he had won his heat earlier in the day. He cut 38 seconds from the morning time, cover the distance in 4 minutes 31 3-5 winning in 7 minutes 1 second. Leo Sharpe of Baltimore was second by half a length after a hard battle with John 4 minutes 48 2-5 seconds. Engle. Engle had Muio on the hip all the way after the latter had beaten him in his heat by three lengths.

From the best position the Hudsons jumped into the lead in the junior four oared barge event and had a half a length lead over the Rosedale Boat Club at the half mile mark, the Nonparell boathouse. Stroke Johnson pushed his crew up to 32 and passed under the Washington Bridge four lengths in the lead, the winning time being 6 minutes

Harry Babcock, the former intercollegiate and Olympic pole vault champion, teamed with S. A. Wilde in a New York A. C. shell in the junior double sculls and won by four lengths, with the Mets second and the Lone Star pair third. It was no race after the first quarter mile. The Winged Foot couple were timed in 6 minutes 52 seconds.

Columbia's junior four leaped away in the junior four oared gigs and hit up a high stroke. The Blue and White four passed the Nonparell boathouse row-ing at 35 and leading by one-quarter of a length. The Mets tried to challenge the collegians, but blew up and were passed by the New Rochelle four at the mile post. Columbia won with reserve, six lengths in front of New Rochelle, which in turn paddled four lengths in front of the Metropolitans. The time was 6 minutes 46 seconds, fast, considering the

At the start of the senior quadruple sculls the Maltas drove the Nonpareils into foreign water, but swung back to the northern shore when warned by Referee Burke. Passing the Union boathouse, no open water showed. The Maltas again swung across the course and, ignoring the shouts, fouled the Nonparells. Burke, to the surprise of all, ruled the Nonparells out and started the other two crews from the point where the foul was committed. The Mets won by a length—as much as they had when the fracas occurred. No time was taken.

Every morning race with the exception of the intermediate single shall over of the intermediate single shell proved a walkover for the crew that won. Leo Sharpe of the Arundels from Balti-more, and L. Toha of the Bohemians, more, and L. Toha of the Bohemians, passed the half mile with bows even. Walter Campell of the Maltas hit up his stroke and led by a quarter of a length opposite Fort George. L. Toha took up the challenge and broke up the race with a freak stroke. He won by half a length in 6 minutes 52 seconds.

Bayonne led by a foot in the senior four oared barge, at the half mile, when F. Miller, rowing No. 2 for the Actives of Hoboken, crabbed his oar. The Ariels Baltimore won by a length in 7 minutes seconds. Rosedale was second, a half a length in front of the Actives, another Hoboken crew. Bayonne was a bad

Tom Rooney of the Ravenswood Boat Club showed he had recovered from the effects of his recent narrow escape from death by exposure when his shell upturned a few weeks ago by winning the senior single scuils in 7 minutes 4 1-5 seconds. He led G. Waldo Smith, the Winged Foot star, by 3 lengths after team was made up of Elliott Bacon, J. a poor start. J. Emery of the Mets was fourth, open water showing between him and Allison.

The New York A. C. won the junior quadruple sculls by a quarter of a mile, in 6 minutes, almost record time. The Lone Star Boat Club was second; the Nassaus third; the Metropolitans fifth, and the Nonpareils sixth.

Walter Campbell of the Maka B. C. allowed Fred Miller to hold a comfortable lead for half the distance in the associalead for half the distance in the associa-tion single sculls. Then the youngster lengthened his powerful stroke. Instead of losing by a length he won by a similar distance in 7 minutes 7 seconds. Deering of the Mets was third by 2 lengths, and A. Rachmell of the Clifton Boat Club fourth. If the crowds that lined the Manhattan and Bronx shores came to see the school-boxs in a burlesque they never received. boys in a burlesque they never received a more surprising disappointment. Not a foul, clash or mishap marred the race, except perhaps the catching of a crab by

THE BRIGHTON OPENING

Walthour Second in 25 Mile Motor Paced Race on Motordrome Track.

The Brighton Beach motordrome opened last night before the largest crowd that ever attended the seaside course. Close to 10,000 witnessed the various events. The weather was suited for racing and when the amateur bicycle riders faced the starter in the opening number the grand starter in the opening number the grand stands were well filled and the bleachers held their capacity.

Added to the usual motorcycle racing bicycle and motor paced events were carded. It was the first time in many carded. It was the first time in many years that bicycle racing on an outdoor track had been seen in New York.

The feature event, a twenty-five mile motor paced race, went to Clarence Carmen after a spirited battle with Bobby Walthour, who returned from Europe last week. The Atlanta crack took the lead week. The Atlanta crack took the lead at the start, but held it for only a few laps, when Carmen jumped ahead and held the race safe the remainder of the distance, finishing a half lap to the good. Twenty lengths behind Walthour was Norman Hansen of Denmark, who gained a lost lap in the last five miles by steady plugging. The winner's time was 32 minutes 53 1-5 seconds. The summaries:

morning in its final spin before starting to Red Top. Jim Talcott, the New York oarsman, at No. 2, and Lou Curtis, at No. 7, both of whom collapsed toward the finish of the race with Cornell, were dependent to the record heat and will dropped to the second boat and probably stay there the remainder of the season. Soucy was transferred from No. 3 to No. 7. Henry Murray, another New Yorker, advanced from the second boat to No. 3 in the regular eight. Tudor Gardiner also came up from the under-study shell to No. 2 in the varsity. Coach Wray would not admit that the makeup of the eight to-day was the way the varsity will row against Yale. The second eight with its arrival at Red Top must forego instruction from coach and will be in charge of Robert F. Herrick and John Richardson, members of Harvard's rowing committee, who will prepare it for entry into the drand Challenge cup event in the English Hen-ley next July.

The varsity squad, twenty-five strong, will leave for Red Top Monday noon.

Catholic College Championship Aspirations Lost With 9 to 0 Defeat.

MANY ERRORS BY LOSERS

Visitors Hit Hard and Timely-Umpire's Ear Badly Cut. by a Foul Tip.

Fordham ended its ball season yestertay at Fordham Field with a 9 to 0 defeat. All hopes of obtaining the inter collegiate championship of the Catholic colleges of the East were shattered by the sudden and decisive beating by George-The collegians had as a rooter Dr. Edward Ryan, who was graduated from Ferdham Medical School three years ago and who became famous as a result of his endeavors in Mexico and his treatment by the Mexican Government, Dr. Ryan was cheered loudly, and his automobile was surrounded by hundreds of friends all during the game. One-half the game was featured by fast ball and good pitching by Walsh, while every odd inning, especially 'he opener, proved disastrous to Fordham, errors and hard drives figuring.

When Fordham played good ball the style was sensational and brilliant, es-pecially that of McErlean and Kane, wro were easily the fielding stars of the con-

In the first inning Georgetown scored twice. Furey and Daley each singled, stole a base and advanced Martin, who had received a pass. On the following play Carroll threw wild to first base, scoring a pair of counts. Walsh followed with a wild pitch, which sent in another run. Georgetown got its other runs on timely drives and costly errors. Martin added three runs, while Tormey scored four, including a home run.

Fordham had three chances to score, but Lynch's brilliant catching and the Southerners' errorless ball, especially the outfield display, pulled Fienle out of many tight places.

Kane was the only person who cou'd steal a base on the visitors, and the Maroon team could not get one break except on actual drives. Klernan obtained the Maroons' longest hit, and it was fielded for three bases, Furey's seturn being one of the longest throws ever seen on Fordham Field. Umpire Aldis suffered for four innings from a four inch cut in his head. He kept on handling the indicator after Trainer Weler treated the wound, which was caused by a foul tip. He had three stitches put in at the Fordham Hospital. GEORGETOWN
